Thank you all for coming. I hope you all had a good run. I think the scale I chose for the map, and my perhaps over-optimistic spread of controls threw a few runners. However I hope it gave you plenty of scope for picking different routes to maximise your score.

Well done to Richard Purkis for winning the men's race by quite a way despite incurring penalty points, and well done to Marian White for winning the women's race. Tereza Rush scored very highly, but unfortunately incurred a lot of penalty points. Peter Langmaid and Mike Baggott could not be separated with both the same score and time.
