It was good to welcome newcomer Andy Bachelor and to re-welcome Michael Brook who has run only once before. An excellent turn out of 12 were able to enjoy the area of Worcester west of the Severn, Brian Hughes having hired a community hall to ease access to this terrain. Competition was unusually fierce on the Long, with the top 3 being separated by only two minutes and Rachel not far behind. Chris McSweeny admitted to losing concentration once, the circle contained a house where he used to live, and relaxing, he switched of and overshot, losing a minute. The Medium is always hotly contested, this time Peter Langmaid running out winner just ahead of Russ. Judith, minus Rose, looked fit but could not match Andy's pace on the Short.

Next event is Rachel White's at Harbourne, Birmingham on Thursday November 22nd. I hope to see you there.
