When I planned this event I imagined arriving to a beautiful red sunset over the rooftops – what we got instead was a wintry wet blast. Thanks to everyone who braved the elements! The format was a single course of 23 controls – each control having an unmapped bonus control located 50 metres away – and a time limit of 90 minutes.

Special mentions

Marathon man: Rich (18.5k - really?!)

Perfect timing: Eloise

Finding the footpath from Dowles: Phil & Eric

Bonus king: James

Survivor: John

Soaked: everyone

Many thanks to Paul Basher for his help on the day.
