Organiser Comments

So when scouting for a base for the event I did identify the physician fairly early on. Had I'd look at the prices early on I may have changed this but I think for those who stayed for food really enjoyed to grub. I went with the 35 controls to test our fast runners to give them something to think about. I'll glad all of the controls were visited at least once. It seemed to be a technical challenge with a few runners getting confused with the tunnels under Five Ways Island. Ben Crone got a mighty impressive 31 controls well under the hour (I really need to rethink my M35 ambition to keep up!!). He was follow home my Robert Rose and Eloise Lee with 27 controls. Just like to think everyone who came and I'll be joining you all in Redditch.
