Organiser Comments & message from our sponsor (Santa):

First of all - thank you all for coming and sorry to those who were let down by the railway problems on the cross city line & couldn't make it. Although we have had The Meadows mapped in Alvechurch (thanks to Alison Sloman) - this was the first "official" orienteering event in Alvechurch and my first time organising a Night Street League - so thanks to John L, Pete R who provided guidance on all aspects. If any issue with results please accept my apologies and kindly let us know and we can fix it. Thankfully the wind dropped in time for the starts and it was a dry evening. Well done Ben & Molly for completely nailing it out there on the course. The course was a mix of village urban and footpath (for those who were not afraid of mud). Most but not all competitors approached the course in a clockwise direction, picking up control 1 first and ending up in the area of control 3. A few brave souls made it up to Pestilence Lane (control 27) (meant to be where the victims of the Black Death from Alvechurch were taken), plenty visited the site of the old sports car factory (control 18), the misnamed street (Althestan Close - should be Athelstan after Saxon king, but residents chose to not correct it - control 5), and the shortest Bob Hopping Street (control 13). The evening concluded with Fish & Chips (thanks to Tudor Rose Fish Bar) all in the cosy surroundings of Alvechurch Cricket Club (very kind thanks to Stu, Kate, Pete for allowing us to use the facilities and for opening the bar).

Message from Sponsor (Santa) well done to all of you for coming, you are definitely on my "nice" list for all the orienteering, organising, planning and volunteering in 2023. Hope you have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
