Well, folks seemed to have enjoyed their runs. Congratulations to Ben and Eloise on clearing the course. I was not sure anyone would achieve this. We were lucky with the weather, I was hoping to sit inside but a special 40% off early bird deal meant Country Girl was packed when I arrived. Bournville is renowned for being dry (drier than ever since the Cadbury Club burned down, the Beeches Conference Centre never re-opened post COVID and the Police social club on Bournville Lane closed a long time ago) and our venue is the closest pleasant pub. When all the building is done down in Stirchley perhaps we can host an NSL down on the flood plain where there is a wider range of drinking and eating establishments.
