Thank you my friends for coming to my WEE! Cold and clear weather, what more can a planner ask for?!

Quite funny with the goats that escaped the enclosure and scaring some of our runners. I hope they managed to catch them this morning :)

Alex got quite carried away and cleared all controls but was late back. Ifor, David and James clearly had a better strategy.

The best part was the pub though, warm and cosy with many conversations around the table, pure joy! Thank you Alex for getting out of your bed and helping me collect this morning. Young legs must be put to work.

Next WEE is on Hollybed Common 28 November 2024. Make sure to e-mail Robert Rose to secure a map!
